b. Middle School: Expelled students will be assigned to a District-approved program that provides approved courses of study designed to support their academic needs.

c. Elementary School: A District program consisting of materials in reading, math, and writing will be provided by the student's elementary school. A tutor will be provided by the District one (1) day per week at the student's home or another agreed upon location to proctor the course. The principal or principal's designee must approve the learning program prescribed for the student.

3. The District reserves the right to change or modify the District alternative education set forth above at any time without advance notice other than to advise expelled District students in writing of the changed or modified District alternative education available to them. At the conclusion of the expulsion period, any student who has satisfactorily participated in the District alternative education program will be given full academic credit for the school work, classes, or programs completed. Those students who fail to satisfactorily complete the District alternative education program will not be given any academic credit for the District alternative school attended.

4. Refusal to Participate. If a parent or guardian refuses to permit an expelled student to participate in a District alternative school, class, or program, the District will have no further obligation to the student, parent, or guardian with regard to providing a District alternative school, class, or program.

B. Academic Credit and Requirements for Successful Participation.

1. If an expelled student successfully completes the course requirements of a District alternative school, class, or program by meeting the attendance, grade, conduct, and other requirements imposed by the District, such student will be given full academic credit for the school work, class, or program completed.
2. To successfully meet the District's attendance requirements, the student must not miss any school, class, program, or session assigned the student unless the absence is excused. Whether or not an absence is excused will be determined solely by the District. In addition, if the student violates any of the District's Standards for Student Conduct, the District will, without further obligation, terminate the program for such student after a due process hearing.
3. The District may adopt such other rules, regulations, or requirements it deems necessary to effectively administer this Rule.

C. Right to a Due Process Hearing. If an expelled student enrolled in a District alternative school, class, or program fails to meet any of the conditions, rules, regulations, or requirements of the learning program, the District may, without further obligation, terminate the program for such student after a due process hearing; no due process hearing will be required, however, if waived by the parent or guardian.

1. Nature of Due Process Hearing. If an expelled student's District alternative school, class, or program under this Rule is terminated by the District, the student will be afforded a due process hearing. The hearing will be the same or substantially similar to hearings afforded students expelled from the District. Information regarding such hearing may be obtained from the District's Director of Student Services.
