

6400: STAFF DEVELOPMENT

The purpose of staff development is to improve student achievement through differentiated learning and instructional opportunities and to improve the effective operation of the District. Educational Services and Leadership & Learning will work collaboratively with District level and building leaders to provide staff development that supports best instructional practices focused on the written, taught, and assessed curriculum, the District-identified Indicators of Effective Teaching and Learning, and the continuous improvement of knowledge and skills as they apply to the Millard Education Program (MEP).
