UNO/Millard Cooperating Teacher Scholarship

If you are taking a UNO graduate class, we may be able to help you pay for graduate classes.

This scholarship program has been instituted in recognition of the contributions of cooperating teachers and administrators to the teacher preparation program at UNO. The scholarships are designed for district personnel pursuing graduate studies. If you qualify, you could receive $450.00 towards a spring or summer graduate class at UNO.

If you meet the guidelines below and are interested in making application for the UNO/Millard Cooperating Teacher Scholarship, please complete the attached application and return it to Dr. Kevin Chick, Associate Superintendent of Human Resources. Applications and deadlines will be posted on the Human Resources & Staff Development Internet Sites. We will notify you of your status shortly after the appropriate dates listed.

Application Deadlines:

Spring 2020 Classes – October 28, 2019

Summer 2020 Classes – March 20, 2020

In the event that requests exceed allotted monies, candidates will be notified via email.*

Scholarship Award Priority Levels

1. Cooperating teacher for UNO student teacher.
2. Cooperating teacher for student teacher from another college or university in the most recent past year.
3. Other teachers who do not meet the above qualifications.
4. Qualifications are listed by priority. In the case of teachers who are at an equal priority level, a random drawing will be used to make the final selection.

Application Requirements

To be considered for a UNO Scholarship please submit the following information:

1. Completed Scholarship Application with college registration form indicating enrollment in qualifying courses
 2. Building principal's signature of approval

The courses taken using the cooperating teacher scholarship will count for advancement on the salary schedule if they meet all other District requirements.
