

Job Description

Title: K-12 Teacher Librarian

Reports to: Building Principal

General Summary:* The role of the teacher/librarian is to ensure that students and staff are effective users of information, to support information literacy within the Millard Education Program, and to provide leadership in the use of technology as a tool for learning.

Essential Functions:

65% Works with classroom teachers and administrators as a partner to plan, design, deliver and evaluate instruction using a variety of resources and information literacy skills.

- Maintains a flexible schedule to ensure integration of information literacy skills in all disciplines
- Assists teachers in the selection of information materials and tools for classroom activities
- Provides reading guidance and assistance to students, staff and parents
- Assists teachers with preview materials
- Functions as a district/building resource for issues regarding copyright and intellectual freedom
- Offers in-services to staff in the areas of information literacy and electronic and online resources

20% Provides leadership, expertise, and advocacy in the use of technology and resources to enhance learning.

- Communicates the building's technology maintenance and repair needs to appropriate personnel; i.e., Help Desk, ESU3, and other support technicians
- Provides support for building technology needs, evaluates hardware and software problems, and serves as liaison to district Help Desk
- Attends inservices and seeks professional opportunities to remain current in the rapidly changing world of information/technology
- Serves on building and district committees for curriculum development and implementation
- Provides staff development in the area of curriculum and technology integration

15% Develops and maintains a curriculum-based collection of print, non-print and electronic materials which support the Millard Education Program.

- Utilizes electronic databases and other technologies to effectively organize, circulate, inventory, and manage information
- Supervises the maintenance and repair of electronic resources, hardware and av

materials

- Trains and supervises paraprofessionals assigned to the library
- Plans effective utilization of media budget allocation to build and maintain a balanced and dynamic collection of information in a variety of formats

Qualifications:

Education Level: Valid Nebraska Teachers' Certificate and an Endorsement in Educational Media

Length of Contract: Standard teaching contract

Experience Desired: Proficient in technology use and troubleshooting skills Win and Mac OS